LOCAL NEWS.

Henry Smith, Esq., came down from the Cienega last Monday.

The weather, since the heavy rains, has been all that heart could desire.

Jim Y. Lee, of Nutrioso, was at the county seat last Monday. Had business before the Supervisors.

No mail reached St. Johns, either from the east or west, from Thursday until Tuesday, on account of washouts.

Sol Barth and family came in from Jaralosa the latter part of last week and were the guests of Serafin Apodaca.

Wm. Blevins, the granger, was down from Springerville last Monday. Says they have had several big white frosts already.

Geo. H. Crosby, of Springerville, came down last Monday to interview the Supervisors in regard to road matters in his district.

The buckboard driver says the bridge across the Puerco at Navajo has been rendered impassable by the late freshet. Some of the piling has been washed out and part of the bridge gone.

The Supervisors met on Monday, with Messrs. La Prade and Ortega present. Mr. Morgan was unable to attend, being detained at home by sickness, from which we hope he may speedily recover.

A. D. McIntosh returned from Colorado last Sunday. Says times in that State are hard and the route through the Navajo reservation is lined with people on their way to the southern part of this Territory.

The flock masters of the county are busily engaged in their fall clipping. The wool market in the east has gone up a notch or two, and the indications are that by next spring wool will have reached a fairly remunerative price.

One paper in the territory is publishing a list of its delinquent subscribers, and the New Mexican is suing them. A subscription account is just as legal a debt as a store bill, and much more easily collected by legal process.—Bee.

County Recorder Nelson received a dispatch from Sheriff Campbell last Friday night to the effect that he was water-bound at Fort Wingate with three Indian prisoners, and that it was impossible to say when he would reach St. Johns on account of washouts on the Atlantic and Pacific railroad.

On account of high-water and mud, the buckboard has been unable to make the trip between this place and Navajo, for several days. The mail from this place was carried on horseback, and one horse was drowned in trying to make the trip, after the Zuni wash had been crossed successfully.

Mr. Eakin, of the wholesale liquor firm of Eakin & Brady, Albuquerque, New Mexico, was water-bound in St. Johns from Friday until Monday afternoon last. He took the mishap very good naturedly, however, and passed the time as agreeably as possible under the circumstances.

We learn that Jack Porter has located in Albuquerque. That city will not lose anything by him having become one of its residents.

An exchange says a young school ma'am with an inordinate fear of the smallpox, sent a little girl home because the latter remarked that her mother was sick and had marks on her face. Next day the child returned and said to the teacher: "We've got a little baby at our house, but mamma told me to tell you that it's not catching."

There was a slight difficulty last Saturday night, between a young Lothario and one who is old enough to be rather blaze in such affairs, over the affections of a fair but frail sister, in which the younger one held the fort. The same damsel has been the cause of more trouble in the immediate past, notwithstanding the fact that she is a grandmother.

One of the heaviest rains that has fallen in this locality for many a long day visited us last Wednesday afternoon. From reports which have reached us, it appears to have extended pretty generally over all northern Arizona and western New Mexico. All streams and arroyos emptying into the Little Colorado were rivers too deep to be passable horseback. The Little Colorado at this point was much higher than for several years past.

We understand the high water did considerable damage at Holbrook, notwithstanding the citizens of that place had taken the precaution to do considerable rip-rapping. The water rose above this artificial barrier and cut in toward the town a considerable distance, taking the residence of Jim Houck. Several of the residents of Holbrook now own town lots in the bed of the Little Colorado.

Miss Mabel F. Doss, from Los Angeles, California, passed through St. Johns the latter part of last week on her way to Springerville, where she had been engaged as assistant in the public school. Miss Doss, having written considerably for the press, and, as a matter of having a friendly feeling for all pencil-pushers, paid THE HERALD a social visit and—as all teachers should do—subscribed and paid for the paper. From that simple fact, we are willing to stake our reputation for discernment, on her being proficient in her profession.

Audon Gonzales was arrested and had a hearing before Judge Davis last Friday, charged with illegally handling cattle, in having sold a two-year old beef steer. It appears that some slick cattle thief is engaged in altering the Twenty-four brand into a running M with a bar above and through the M, presumably to cover the lower part of the 4 in the Twenty-four. In addition to the Twenty-four on the left ribs, they have an open A on the jaw. In some instances this has been made an X or a cross, and in others it has been cut and made what is termed a wattle. Audon has charge of Louis Chaves' cattle, which are branded 22 with a bar above it, and he claims that this particular steer was originally a bar-22 burned over. Judge Davis held him to await the action of the grand jury in the sum $500, which was promptly furnished and Gonzales released. It is a fact that there is a great deal of cattle stealing going on in this county and has been for the past two years. We are informed, by reliable authority, that it is an every day occurrence to find calves in one brand following cows in another brand. Cattlemen should unite to put a stop to such work. Their losses during the past two or three years, from natural causes, has been so heavy they can ill afford to start Tom, Dick and Harry in the cattle business.

Blossburg is the second coal producer in the Territory. Last year, this camp mined 244,995 tons of coal and employed 303 men. Gallup stands first, having produced 247,686 tons and employed 361 men.—Gleaner.

Silver is the poor man's money. Demonetise it and all the laboring men of America will be placed on a level with the Russian serf.—Durango Herald.

After two years of submission to the bunco game known as the "Chick Short Method Smelting and Refining Co.," the Kansas stockholders have awakened to the fact that they are swindled. Now it they will go for Chick and land him in jail, they will become benefactors. When we see the number of men who are constantly caught by such swindles as this and the Atlantic-Pacific Tunnel and scores of such fake games, we wonder if there is such a thing as common sense among investors. Perhaps, though, an all-wise Providence divided mankind into two classes, as he did fishes, one to eat and the other to be eaten. If that be so perhaps the shark is fulfilling his divine mission when he catches the suckers, and the suckers are also doing well when they get caught.—Mining Industry.

The Santa Fe company has issued orders to all foremen in every department of the road where laborers are employed, that they must discharge all Austrians, Italians, Huns, etc., and employ no more of this class of people, on penalty of losing their positions.—Ex.

$100 Reward $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of Testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio.

Bradstreet's office in this city reports a remarkably low number of failures in New Mexico and Arizona since the financial crisis came upon us. From all sources in the territories the reports for the future outlook are most favorable. Confidence has been restored. The rains of the past three months will do much good for the two territories and the prospect of a large immigration are counted upon, the exhibits at Chicago being a great pull for the southwest.—Albuquerque Citizen.

Robert Clark, one of the old time miners of this county, and James Daily, have just had worked at the Sampler four tons of Ivapah ore. The ore netted between one and two thousand dollars. Mr. Clark is pleased to be back again in old Mohave after years of absence and has found a great many of the boys with whom he associated in his youthful days living in and around Kingman. He will visit for several days and may take a trip out into the mines.—Mohave Miner.

Frank Oury was killed at Arivaca, on the night of the 20th instant, by three masked Mexicans in their attempt to rob a business house in which Oury and others were. With the number was a Mrs. Miranda whom the bandit fired at, hoping, no doubt to kill her, upon the ground that "the dead tell no tales," but, happily, the bullet went wide of the mark. Although a number of shots were fired by the robbers, Frank Oury was the only one killed. Such red handed outlaws are not deserving of the least consideration. A short shrift and a limb of a tree is all that should be accorded them.—Silver Belt.

Andrew Carnegie is writing magazine articles on the silver question. One in the North American Review is entitled "A Word to the Wage Earners." The last time Andrew addressed this class of people was at Homestead, July 6th, 1892.—Headlight.

Willcox is getting an immense Chinese population. Whether they come we know not, but it is certain that they do not arrive by rail. The Mexican line is not too far away for them to make their entrance from that direction.—Stockman.

The Fountainhead of Strength.
When we recollect that the stomach is the grand laboratory in which food is transformed into the secretions which furnish vigor to the system after entering and enriching the blood; that it is, in short, the fountain head of strength, it is essential to keep this important machine in order, and to restore it to activity when it becomes inactive. This Hostetter's Stomach Bitters does most effectively seasonably, regulating and reinforcing digestion, promoting due action of the liver and bowels. Strength and quietude of the nerves depend in great measure upon thorough digestion. There is no nerve tonic more highly esteemed by the medical fraternity than the Bitters. Physicians also strongly commend it for chills and fever, rheumatism, kidney and bladder trouble, sick headache, and want of appetite and sleep. Take a wineglassful three times a day.

The best way to discourage the incoming of Chinese to New Mexico is to cease patronizing them. As long as there are deserving men and women engaged in the laundry, restaurant and other business in which Chinamen principally engage, the deserving Americans ought to be patronized in preference to the slant-eyed heathen.—Albuquerque Citizen.

Marriages are increasing in southern Arizona as the near approach of the fall session of the United States court becomes more apparent. It is strange that Senator Edmunds, who causes one-half of the marriages in Arizona to be solemnized, should not have a single child in the territory named after him.—Prospector.

The cut in wages at Bisbee has affected every one in the employ of the Copper Queen Co. The minister, superintendent, bookkeeper and clerks in the store all feel the keen edge of the axe. They took the matter in a very philosophical manner and very little grumbling was heard.—Prospector.

The railroad fare to the Midwinter Fair at San Francisco will be reasonable, and within the reach of all who may wish to attend.
